Enrique Iglesias, Heart Attack

Loving you was easy Thought you'd never leave me Yeah, yeah

Wrapped around my finger See ya when I see ya Yeah, yeah

Now I'm hearing around That you been running around I didn't think I'd miss you Now I'm feeling like a fool Ooh Ooh

It hit me like a heart attack When you finally left me girl I thought I'd never want you back But I don't wanna live in a world without you I don't wanna live in a world without you I don't wanna live in a world without you

Never really noticed All the little things you did, you did Never bought you roses Always was around my friends, my friends

And now I'm hearing around That you been running around I didn't think I'd miss you Now I'm feeling like a fool Ooh Ooh

Never should have let you slip away Living in a world that's turned to grey Little did I know it hurt so bad Ooh, ooh

Cause it hit me like a heart attack When you finally left me girl I thought I'd never want you back But I don't wanna live in a world without you I don't wanna live in a world without you I don't wanna live in a world without you

No oh I don't wanna live in a world without you No oh I don't wanna live in a world without you

Now I'm hearing around That you been running around I didn't think I'd miss you Now I'm feeling like a fool Ooh Ooh
