Speak out, but you don't say a thing
Just words without the courage to back them up
Can't you feel it something deep inside
Are you content to just sit back
Just sit back and watch
Did you ever live your life
Did you ever try
To see, to be
Something more
Did you ever live your life
Did you ever try
To see, to be
Something more

Speak out, but you don't say a thing
Just words without the courage to back them up
Can't you feel it something deep inside
Are you content to just sit back
Just sit back and watch

Did you ever live your life
Did you ever try
To see, to be
Something more
Did you ever live your life
Did you ever try
To see, to be
Something more

Someday you might find yourself alone,
Look inside
Someday you might find yourself alone,
Look inside
You don't even know who you are
You don't even know yourself
You don't even know who you are
You'll never know who you are
