

Enter The Haggis, Half A Hero

Voices rise carried by wind
On the open plain
Speak to me of all you have seen
Through the pale dawn...
Ride on, ride on, ride on...

The ground is warm and underneath
The spirit calls your name
Do not be afraid, we will listen
Sing on and on and on and on...

For I am just a rovin' man
Moving through my time
Desperately speaking peace of mind
And if I tell you who I am
will you not put me down?

Half a hero, half a clown

Wrap your warmest thoughts
Around some wretched, aching soul
My love...
Smile for me like children
Laying sweetly beneath the summer wind
My love...

For I am just a rovin' man
Moving through my time
Desperately seeking peace of mind
And if I tell you who I am
Will you not put me down?

Half a hero, half a clown

Well I know there are devils in this land
Cause I've seen them made of dust
Spinning 'round and laughing at the ground
And turning things to rust

And I'm turning around and around...
I'm spinning around and around...

For I am just a rovin' man
Moving through my time
Desperately seeking peace of mind
And if I tell you who I am
Will you not put me down?

Half a hero...
...half a clown
