

Entombed, Parasight

When all you have's a hammer, all you see is nails
When all you have's a hammer, and when all else fails
Hit the nails!

When all you have's a buzz-saw, all you see is wood
When all you have's a buzz-saw, you just wish you could Yeah, you would!

When all you have's a lighter, all you see's a fuse
And when you see it burning, you ain't got nothing to lose!

When all you have's a shovel, all you see is graves
When all you have's a shovel, in hollow pits they will be saved
Light the fuse!
