

Entombed, Wreckage

Say what? Well, come again
Do you think you can change it?
It's just a matter of time 'til it all will end
I'm a wreck - and so are you
We're all wrecked up
I got a date with the devil and so do you

Will our bad luck ever turn I doubt it man
I think we're destined to burn alive, yeah, we have lost but you refuse to realise it at all cost
And the future's now - Isn't that tomorrow?
How can a man be so blind to see a wreck is the only way?
I'm a wreck!

Say what? Yeah well, come again
Do you think you can change it?
It's just a matter of time 'til it all will end
I'm a wreck - and we're all dead
We're all wrecked up
I'll be rockin' and rollin' in hell instead!

So put on a smile and I'll light the ignition this is real life, it ain't cinemavision
And yeah, the time's right now - It will never be tomorrow!
Don't ask how I can fit six billion in my car drive it off a cliff, go out like a dinosaur
Here I am balanced on the edge and it makes me fucking scared!
