

Entwine, Learn To Let Go

In this life, I'm searching for the reasons.
How to learn to realize, things we feel inside.
Oh, why I have these strange emotions.
And the answers that I found.
They're not enough for me.

It's time we're reaching out for more.
It's time we're reaching out for love.
Well, it's time to realize what are we for.
'Cos it's time to realize what are we for.

And now I've gathered all the answers.
Now I've learnt to realize, learnt to let go.
Arise, so you can feel it in you.
My search has come to an end, or has it just begun?

It's time we're reaching out for more.
It's time we're reaching out for love.
Well, it's time to realize what are we for.
'Cos it's time to realize what are we for.
