

Eowyn, Silent Screams

(Feat. Rob Beckley)

Broken ties

She was gasping for her life

Pushing past her jaded mind

She is calling for help

One more time

Slipping fast she held on tight

This transition calls for fight

She is calling for help

With Silent Screams cried out

Will we reach them now

It's time to scream out loud

Will we hear them now

Opened eyes she now see the other side

Grass is greener

But it dies

She is calling for help

Now alive but she's fading scared to fight

Losing faith she longs to (try)

She is calling for help
