

Erase The Grey, Waiting

Your face on my mind
The thought of you in my head
Every moment that I am alive
Every breath I breathe
Every thing I do
Is and will always be
For you
I am waiting
For you to light my way
I am waiting
For you to run away
There is not
One thing I know
That could take me away from
All the sights I'll show you
You are my life
And I will stay
Next to you
Until I dream my last sweet dream away
My soul is yours
These tears are too
And everything I'll ever do
Everything I'll ever do is
For you
I never
Wanted more than I had
You gave me
Something that I can't live without
Why did I
Not know what was in me
All this time I never
Ever thought you would believe me
This moment is ours
These dreams are coming true
And everything I'll do is
For you
When you cry
Just close your eyes
And think of me I'll be there
Every time you'll ever need me
Remember everything
Everything I'll ever do
Is and will always be
For you
