

Erasure, Golden Heart (GRNs 'Golden Glow' Radio Edit)

Like a bubble that's floating
On high above
I won't break down
I won't cry
But the colours are melting
I am fragile

I've been acting so coldly
And hope some day
That you will forgive me

You are the one
That knows me for who I really am
It'll all be gone in the morning
We are lucky
Owe it all to fortune

Golden heart
Tears of love
Shining
Will glow

There's a light at
The end of the tunnel
I am crawling slowly
I am small

What's been up with me lately?
Hardly know me
Who's that in the mirror?

You are the one
That knows my moods of joy and anger
You've been coping and lonely
We are lucky
Owe it all to fortune

Golden heart
Tears of love
Shining
Will glow

Golden heart
Tears of love
Shining
Will glow

Golden heart
Tears of love
Shining
Will glow
