

Erasure, How My Eyes Adore You

Woah, woah
How my eyes adore you
As you walk into the room

Anytime you're feeling lonely
Like a ship without a sail
Anytime that I fall and stumble
Be my rock where others fail

Anytime that you're feeling lonely
Come along and be mine only
All it takes is a little trying
Please don't you leave me crying

He don't want to know
Just turn around and go

Woah, woah
How my eyes adore you
As you walk into the room

Anytime that you're feeling restless
Take a deep breath and let it go

Only know that it leaves me breathless
Anytime that you're feeling low

Anytime that you're feeling lonely
Come along and be mine only
I can see your future with me
Can you fill the need within me?

When I close my eyes
You're the only one I love
Take me darling

If he don't want to know

Woah, woah
There's enough for everybody
The world she don't mind

Woah, woah
How my eyes adore you
As you walk into the room
