

Erasure, I Bet You're Mad At Me

Don't justify
For what you are
And where you've been
For who you are tonight
So lonesome tonight

Make believe
Just hanging on
You're crazy
That's who are you tonight
All over tonight

Tell the world
You're still afraid
Been on this road too long

Falling soft
But raining hard
So wrap up well
It's freezing cold tonight
So cold tonight

Tell me all
I need to know
I'll spare your fears
So sad to see tonight
The tears you cry tonight

I stayed away
A long time now
But I'll be home tonight

I bet you're mad at me
Can't you read my lips
I see your eyes of blue
What you want from me
It's not the way it should be
You've got the world to give
I gave you all my love
But you're mad at me

(tonight)
(all over tonight)

Tell the world
You're still afraid

I bet you're mad at me
Can't you read my lips
I see your eyes of blue
What you want from me
It's not the way it should be
You've got the world to give
I gave you all my love
But you're mad at me

I bet you're mad at me
What you want from me
I gave you all my love

But you're mad at me

I bet you're mad at me
What you want from me
I gave you all my love
But you're mad at me

I bet you're mad at me
Can't you read my lips
What you want from me
It's not the way it should be
I gave you all my love
But you're mad at me
