

Erasure, Love Affair

It's not just a love affair, it's all or nothing do i bet it all on love?, or change and freak out?
when the chances come my way
will they up and dissappear?
will it ever go my way?
or am i out of here?

there'll be tears before your bedtime
you mark my words
you wanted more than i could give you you wanted more than you could have

it's not just a love affair it's now or never could i give it all to you?
is that what we're about?
if i hold you, will you stay?
or will you up and dissappear?
be forever and a day
like your letter said

there'll be tears before your bedtime
you mark my words
you wanted more than i could give you
you wanted more than you could have

when the chances come my way
will they up and dissappear
will it ever go my way
or am i out of here?

there'll be tears before your bedtime
you mark my words
you wanted more than i could give you
you wanted more than you could have

(love's growing stronger every day) (love's growing stronger every way)
