

Erasure, Rain

What is there to do?, only rain, falling down from the sky only me and you, fair and plain nothing lost and nothing gained only the love nothing more nothing less comes between us temperature's rising, my passion is burning inside (chorus)

my world in light saving all as one
a love that no one can deny my one true light , same for everyone a love we dare you to defy
only rain

i won't settle for less, but no regret see myself in your own reflection (see myself in your reflection) something in your eyes that tells me why i'm a fool for your warm affection (i'm a fool for your affection)
only the love, nothing more,
nothing less comes between us
(chorus)

my one true light , same for everyone
only rain
(you are my, my one true, my world in light)
(you are my, my one true, my world in light)
