

Erasure, Save Me Darling

Why should it matter how i feel?
This old romantic down at heel
Then again if i'd known the outcome sure you'd win
Elusion shattered made them real
A night of magic fate is sealed ran a mock, and you knocked my tiny world for six

It wouldn't have made the slightest blindest bit of difference
All together now let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling

I feel it deep down deep inside can-not belive wer'e still alive that is good coz I did not mean you harm my love
We took a shot at mascarade
Came crashing down on love's parade
We where young, where so full of teen emotion then

We couldn't have made the slightest blindest bit of difference
All together now lets hear you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling

All together now lets hear you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling

We couldn't have made the slightest blindest bit of difference
All together now lets hear you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling

All together now lets hear you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling

We couldn't have made the slightest blindest bit of difference
I'm all over save me darling

All together now lets see you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling

All together now lets see you pray
Make it better now and savour the day
I'm all over save me darling
