

Eric Carmen, Someone That You Loved Before

(Eric Carmen/Diane Warren)

You used to touch me
Baby, now your touch has turned so cold
You used to want me
Now baby, you just want to let me go
And I can see I'm losing you now
And I don't wanna

No, I don't wanna be just
Someone that you loved before
Baby, please don't let me be
Someone you don't love no more
Just tell me we could make it right
'Cause I'd do anything
To hold you in my arms and then
Hear you say
You're back in love with me again

Is it over?
Baby, are we over now for good?
I know you're goin'
If I could make you stay you know I would
If I could just get through to you now
'Cause I don't wanna

No I don't wanna be just
Someone that you loved before
Baby, please don't let me be
Someone you don't love no more
Just tell me we could make it right
'Cause I'd do anything
To hold you in my arms and then
Hear you say
You're back in love with me again

Baby, can't we give it one more try?
'Cause I don't wanna be the one you leave behind

Baby, I don't wanna be just
Someone that you loved before
Baby, tell me I could be
Someone you could love once more
Just tell me we could make it right
'Cause I'd do anything
To hold you in my arms and then
Hear you say
You're back in love with me again

Someone that you loved before
Baby, tell me I could be
Someone you could love once more
Just tell me we could make it right
'Cause I'd do anything
To hold you in my arms and then
Hear you say
You're back in love with me again

Someone that you loved before
Baby, tell me I could be
Someone you could love once more
Just tell me we could make it right
'Cause I'd do anything
To hold you in my arms and then

Hear you say
You're back in love with me again
