

Eric Maliet, In My Dreams

Don't walk away i don't know how to play this game
You say it's real but losing you is all the same
I'm wide awake i don't know what to do
'cause when i dream i only dream of you
In my dreams
In my dreams

I'm not in love i don't have anything to hide
I stole your heart and kept it burried deep inside
I dread to sleep i don't know if it's true
'cause when i dream i only dream of you

In my dreams
In my dreams (i can fly and i can cry)
In my dreams (girls may ask girls will come)
In my dreams (there's no pain and there's no fear)

I'm not that grim i may be stronger than i look
You never smile you say your mind's an open book
But i can't read it's purple and it's blue
'cause when i dream my dreams are full of you

In my dreams
In my dreams (i can fly and i can cry)
In my dreams (girls may ask girls will come)
In my dreams (there's no pain and there's no fear)

In my dreams
In my dreams (i can fly and i can cry)
In my dreams (girls may ask and girls will come)
In my dreams (take my hand and there's no fear)
In my dreams (there's no fear and there's no pain)

Hold my hand 'cause i can fly
The night is white you're never smiling
There's no fear i lost your hand
And we fake it all
