

Eric Mantel, Don

Standing here under the light too many years have passed us by.
You and I both know that there is more between you and me.
You've tried so very hard to be who you are let yourself be.
Don't let the day go by if you try to hide what you feel inside.

Don't let the pain you feel come between what's real broken hearts will heal.
Lonely night I think of you the tears that I cry are nothing new.
You and I both know that there is more to what we see.

Days seem to slip away when we think of ways how to be free.

Don't let the day go by if you try to hide what you feel inside.
Don't let the pain you feel come between what's real broken hearts will heal.
And if you should find your way remember me each day for my love is real.
And if we should say good bye don't let years pass just remember me.
