

Erika Jo, Love Is

We're not strong enough to bend
We're not strong enough to say we can forgive
We're not brave enough to fall
Oh, and we're not big enough to risk it all

But love is
Love is
It's always been
It always will be
We may not be perfect
But love is

We can't resist another fling
We're not able to live above the bling

But love is
Love is
It's always been
It always will be
We may not be perfect
But love is

We may not be ready anywhere close to a start
But wherever we are

Love is
It's always been
It always will be
I may not be perfect
But love is
Love is
