

Erika Jo, There Are No Accidents

I used to talk about coincidence
And how true love is only found by chance
Now I look at you and I'm convinced
There are no accidents

I can see that every time I chose
What I thought to be just some wrong road
Lead me here holding you this close
There are no accidents

One kiss and I knew for certain
Love so absolutely perfect
Can't be anything but meant to be
There's just no other way to explain you with me

The sun goes down and the moon comes up
The tide rolls in, the stars appear above
And you and I falling so in love
There are no accidents

One kiss and I knew for certain
Love so absolutely perfect
Can't be anything but meant to be
There's just no other way to explain you with me

I used to talk about coincidence
And how true love is only found by chance
Now I look at you and I'm convinced
There are no accidents
There are no accidents
There are no accidents
