

Ernest Tubb, Miles In Memories

Yes I've got lots of miles but lots of mem'ries
And I wouldn't set the miles back if I could Cause whenever I get blue I know exactly what to do
Just retravel all those miles in memories

You say that all those miles are showing on me
Well I'll admit I had some rough ones way back when
But for every mile there holds a story left untold

Back there in my book of memories
Cause I've got lots of miles...
[ steel ]
Now as faces and places come before me
Making up my full book of memories
And I wouldn't ever dare one page to soil or tear
I might want to review them all some day
Yes I've got lots of miles...