

Error, Nothing's Working

Sometimes i try the late night dial
To distract from the mess I'm in
I would find religion somehow
But I can never make a go of it

Nothing's working! x3
Are you listening to me!?
Nothing's working! x3
Are you listening to me!?

Electronic cheap narcotics
Are just stoking the disease
I've got no ambition to show
And I can't tell you what I really need

Nothing's working! x3
Are you listening to me!?
Nothing's working! x3
Are you listening to me!?

Well you've told me once but I've told you twice
I'll never take your good advice
When passion drives then hold the reins
If you need revenge then dig
Two graves!

Carnal bondage
Bacchanalian knowledge
Fetishistic anomalies
(Nothing's working)
Let's just fuck our brains out my love
And you can fake what you can't achieve

Nothing's working! x3
Are you listening to me!?
Nothing's working! x3
Are you listening to me!?
Nothing's working x3
