

Erykah Badu, Certainly (Flipped It)

Uh, Flip with me,
Might be cool.

Who gave u permission to rearrange me
certainly not me
who told you that it was alright to love me Certainly, certainly not me.

I was not looking for no love affair, baby and now you wanna fix me
I was not looking for no love affair
and now you want to mold me
Was not looking for no love affair, baby now you wanna kiss me
Was not looking for no love affair
and now you wanna control me
hold me

I know youre trying to get creative with my love and that's alright, but you tried to get a little tricky turned my back
and then you slipped me a mickey.

Certainly, certainly, certainly not me (I wasnt ready)
Certainly, certainly, certainly not me
Certainly, certainly, certainly not me
Certainly, certainly, certainly not me

Goodbye, but now it goes, (when I wake up) I dont need nobody tellin me the time, ooh uh uh oh

Who gave u permission to rearrange me
certainly not me
No way, no
Who told you that it was alright to love me
certainly, certainly not me

I was not looking for no love affair
and now you wanna fix me
I was not looking for no love affair
and now you want to mold me
Was not looking for no love affair
now you wanna kiss me
Was not looking for no love affair
and now you wanna control me
hold me

I know youre trying to get creative with my love and that's real cute, boy,
you tried to get a little tricky
turned my back
and then you slipped me a mickey.

Certainly, certainly, certainly not me (ooh)
Certainly, certainly, certainly not me (ooh)
Certainly, certainly, certainly not me (ooh)
Certainly, certainly, certainly not me (ooh)

You know that that was mine,
When I wake up (when I wake up)
I dont need nobody tellin me the time, no
The world is mine, mine , mine, mine, mine, uh, (when I wake up)
I dont need no middle,

Rollin over,
Lookin after me.
