

Eskobar, Under These Stars

I had this dream about belongin' somewhere
I had this dream about a place where someone cares
Cause in my life, I'm lackin' love
So I keep on askin' the stars above

It all happened under these stars
It all happened under these stars
I'm asking the sky
The all seeing eye, about you

I had no hope in ever finding my way home
Did not believe I'd find a place to rest my bones
But in my life, I'm lackin' love
So I keep on askin' the stars above

It all happened under these stars?
