

Eskobar, Why London

Where you going now?
Where you going now?
What you're looking for
Is not outside your door
Not in another land
Still see a ticket in your hand

Why London?
It's not your home
Why London?
Just a warzone

Where you going now?
Where you going now?
Have to step inside
Have to pay some mind
No matter where you are
High above, or under the stars

Why London?
It's not your home
Why London?
Just a warzone
