

Esmee Denters, Victim

Hold up, wait a minute, what i'm feeling now
My world's spinning around got me freaking out
Hold up, wait a minute, you're my universe
Everything you say or do always seem [...]
Eight hours, to the minute, since i left you place
You told me i should be thanking god that you came my way
Eight minutes to the second, since i realized
I know we don't suppose to feel like this
And it's time that i,
Let go of all the things you've been calling me
Let go of all the pain and the memories
I ain't about to break my beginning
And you showed me how
I don't need your love for charity,
Got everything i want in me,
Open your eyes and you will see,
That i, i, that i, i
Ain't a victim, ain't a victim
Are you listening?
Said i, i, said i, i
Ain't a victim, ain't a victim, ain't a victim oooh
Don't think i'll be giving any part of me
Anything that you ever had now is history
Don't blink coz you'll miss it
I [...] boy
I'll be slipping out of this change, you won't hear a noise..
Let go of all the things you've been calling me.
Goodbye to all the pain and the memories.
I ain't about to break my beginning
And you showed me how
I don't need your love for charity,
Got everything i want in me,
Open your eyes and you will see,
That i, i, that i, i
Ain't a victim, ain't a victim
Are you listening?
Said i, i, said i, i
Ain't a victim, ain't a victim, ain't a victim oooh
Oh my.. you're looking like a lonely guy,
You just don't know where to turn.
Oh my.. baby don't cry watching the biggest part
Hold up, wait a minute, what i'm feeling now.
My world's spinning around got me freaking out.
Hold up, wait a minute, you're my universe.
Everything you say or do..
I don't need your love for charity,
Got everything i want in me,
Open your eyes and you will see,
That i, i, that i, i
Ain't a victim, ain't a victim
Are you listening?
Said i, i, said i, i
Ain't a victim, ain't a victim, ain't a victim oooh
