

Eternal Decision, Free

Lord, you know who I am
And You know me better, than I know myself
You gave Your love, And now I give you all.

You take my shame, You take my pride
You take it all away.
You take my shame, You take my pride
I give you all today.

Lord, you know I fall short
But you've always loved me
In spite of all my faults
You came for me, Now my heart it Free
