

Eternal Gray, Flesh Cycles

Darkness falls within my eyes
An ever-dark dimension in my mind
For every moment sores soul-pain
Without fear I walk towards vain

Walk towards the light
Stopping all life
For your death came soon
And the cycle starts again
No looking back
Sleep, wayward soul
Wresting my breath
Cycles turn again

Break free with me and I'll break all your walls
Embed your self to me, I'll give all you ask for Fear me and you'll never know the truth
I am powerful, I am your soul!

Walk towards the light...

This grief will never be again
Just thoughts some day fulfill, my wish to never be
No more these cycles keep re-turning
For every turn our soul keeps burning

Walk towards the light
Stopping all life
For your death came soon
And the cycle starts again
No looking back
Sleep, wayward soul
Wresting my breath
And the cycle starts again
