

Etta James, Anything to say you're mine

Ohh Ohh
I'm so blue
'cause I'm worried over you I, I sometimes wonder why I never hear from you You promised to write me each and everyday
and I haven't heard from you since you went away
oohh oohh
I sit by my window pane hoping for a letter
one that never came My heart cries for just one little line
anything to say you're mine Oohh, oohh, oohh, oohh
I said a prayer
everynight, hoping hoping and praying
someday, someday you'd write
oohh, oohh
My heart cries
for one little line
Anything to say you're mine...
