Etta James, Anything to say you're mine

Ohh Ohh I'm so blue 'cause I'm worried over you I, I sometimes wonder why I never hear from you You promised to write me each and everyday and I haven't heard from you since you went away oohh oohh I sit by my window pane hoping for a letter one that never came My heart cries for just one little line anything to say you're mine Oohh, oohh, oohh, oohh I said a prayer everynight, hoping hoping and praying someday, someday you'd write oohh, oohh My heart cries for one little line Anything to say you're mine...
