

Eudora, The Struggle

Goodnight sweetheart
Pull the blankets up and
Have no fear
The worst is yet to come
Now lets retract
All the lies you said and
Lets playback
This stories getting nowhere
You dont know
What youve been missing
And I dont know
Where youve been sleeping
The silence here
Is nothing short of insincere
I call to you, I call to you
All this fear inside
Theres nothing I can do
I scream to you, I scream to you
So wont you hang around and
Well take your pictures down
You can hear the sound of
My heart breaking in two
You dont care at all
