

Eugenia Vlasova feat. A. Donalds, Wind Of Hope

I know the world of dreams exists
I'll show you there just touch my lips
I'll be the breath of your desire
My feelings you should rely on

Chorus:

Once in the morning tender and warming
Wind of hope will wake you up
Follow my motion over the ocean
I am flying to my star

She:

I see the sorrow in your eyes
You'll soon be in the paradise!
Don't be afraid- you've got to call me
And only you've got to hold me

Chorus:

Once in the morning tender and warming
Wind of hope will wake you up
Follow my motion over the ocean
I am flying to my star
