Eurythmics, Let's Go!

He was the kinda guy I liked the way he looked. He had a red silk tie -He had a forties suit. And I said - " You're the kind of person I've been longing to adore." "You're the kind of person I've been waiting for." He said - " The time is right to take a chance 'Cause I'm looking for a brand new romance." ":So come on baby let's go outside -I've got a car in the drive and we can take a ride."

"So let's go - I wanna fall in love ooh hoo." "Let's go - I wanna fall in love ooh hoo."

Well - we went driving for an hour or so

Till we took the little Chevy down to Mexico.

And I said - "Blue eyed boy, you know I love the way you look." "Why don't we find a preacher Who can get us hooked?"

"You know the time is right to take a chance

'Cause I'm looking for a brand new romance."

And the great big moon

Was a shinin' down

He said "Forget about the preacher man,

Let's do it on the ground!"

"Let's go - I wanna fall in love ooh hoo." "Let's go - I wanna fall in love ooh hoo."
