

Eurythmics, Sisters Are Doin' It

Now there was a time,
When they used to say,
That behind every great man,
There had to be a great woman,
But in these times of change,
You know it's no longer true,
So we're comin out the kitchen,
cause there's somethin we forgot to say to you yeah....
Sisters are doin it for themselves,
Standin on there own two feet,
And ringin on their own bell.
Now this is a song, (sing it Xena)
To celebrate yeah.....
That the concious liberation of the female state (oh its talkin bout a state of mind)
Mothers and daughters and their daughters to,
Women to women were singin with you. yeah.....
Sisters are doin it for themselves,
Standin on there own two feet,
And ringin on their own bell.
Oh we aint makin stories,
And we aint layin plans,
Cos a man still loves a women,
And the women still loves a man (that's just a sayin though)
Sisters are doin it for themselves,
Standin on there own two feet,
And ringin on their own bell. (oh ringin on my bell now)
Sisters are doin it for themselves,
Standin on there own two feet,
Oh....And ringin on their own bell.
Sisters are doin it for themselves,
Standin on there own two feet,
Oh....And ringin on their own bell.
Sisters are doin it for themselves,
