Eurythmics, This Is The House

This Is The House

This is the house
This is the hill
This is the story - it's a little thing
A lock of hair
An invisible smoke trail Nothing there but the dust and the rust
oh/oh/oh everything changes

This is your picture (it's in black and white)
This is the family having a party
There's a crack in the ceiling
And there's an open door
Nothing there but the dust and the rust
oh/oh/oh everything changes
