

Eva Cassidy, Say Goodbye

Its funny how the distance can make you feel close
And the things you lost are the things you want most
The weathers fine here perfect shade of blue
I guess thats why Ive been thinking of you

Chorus:-

So I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
Ooh must be the mood Im in
Im thinking of you again
I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye

I know youre different now and I guess I changed too
And I thought what was once so right was so wrong for you
Yesterday I was talking and I heard your name
The weathers fine here with a slight chance of rain

Chorus:-

Time makes you sorry for the things that youve done
Sometimes you walk away and sometimes you run
And the weathers fine here; I can feel a slight chill
Somethings change babe and some never will

Chorus:-

I call you up just to tell you why
To say I love you and to say goodbye
