

Evaline, Write Your Pretentious Squalls (Off Again)

Simple words, simple rehearsals beautiful mess always regurgence of ?
and now im back for more honest means, to simple endings hold in itself, some of them are ignorant keep em entertained

why you wanna crawl designer jeans thats all you are fistful means, stuck for cars
i know i know its a war

war in the city

take your pride in the simple things (your up again breathing)
take the noise with the joy it brings (your up again breathing)

you are the veins that hang from tall trees hands in my pallet, flesh eating is cliché sold, il just keep peddling on, on

over these bushels, under ?
the battered sun ?

take your pride in the simple things
(your up again breathing)
take the noise with the joy it brings (your up again breathing)

open your arms, they shake and scream its not your fault
die if i can breathe
a scenic song
i know i know its a war

take the noise with the joy it brings (your up again breathing)
