

Evan & Jaron, Say What

why do I feel like I've been through this before and why do I feel like I'm gonna fail again is it that I regret not taking advice or is it that I know that I'm not right say what you want
I don't know
say what you need
I don't care
say how do you feel
when you feel like you're all alone

I haven't fallen as hard as I thought I would maybe its not as bad as people say I could have turned my back and gone away but now I know that I am here to stay say what you want
