Evan & Jaron, The Distance

the sky has lost its color the sun has turned to grey at least thats how it feels to me whenever you're away i crawl up in a corner as i watch the minutes pass each one brings me closer to the time when you'll be back you're comin back

i can't take the distance i can't take the miles i can't take the time until the next time i see you smile i can't take the distance and i'm not ashamed that i can't take a breath without seeing your name but i can't breathe a hurricane and still be standing tall when all the dust has settled down but i can't take the distance

i still believe in feelings but sometimes i feel too much i make believe you're close to me but it ain't close enough not nearly close enough

i can't take the distance i can't take the miles i can't take the time until the next time i see you smile i can't take the distance and i'm not ashamed that i can't take a breath without seeing your name but i can't breathe a hurricane and still be standing tall when all the dust has settled down

i can't take the distance i can't take the miles i can't take the time until the next time i see you smile
i can't take the distance and i'm not ashamed that i can't take a breath without seeing your name and i can't take the distance the distance
