

Even Stevens, I Always Find A Way

Im not strong, Im not fast, when it comes to endurance I just cant last.
So Ill get out of gym like I have in the past.
Like the time you wore the useful body cast.

I always find a way.
He always finds a way.
No one can produce,
an excellant excuse like you
What can i say?
He always finds a way

A pathetic weez, a powerful sneeze
The time you filled your ears up with cottage cheese and said it was because of my sweat allergies
That one got me out of gym with ease.

I always find a way.
He always finds a way.
He can easily create, with two abreviate, his gym period stay
I always find a way.
He always find a way.
But not today.
