

Even Stevens, Stop

Stop, Don't go, There's something you got to know
Can't you see the hold you have on me?
That look, your smile, oh it drives me wild.
And I don't know how to escape it.
When you walk into the room
My heart's beating wild and crazy
I can't speak when I look at you
My tongue gets tied and my mind is hazy

Stop
Don't stare
Didn't you know I cared
The secrets out
Here's what it's all about
That look
Your smile
Oh it drives me wild
And I don't know
How to escape it
