

Evens, Mtpleasant Isnt.

Let me revolve 'cause there is of you can jam as you through you shove the past by playing last but not the one that you knew and anger takes place of what's destroyed

Mt.Pleasant isn't anymore so in the end movin all that pair a rum just bud and touch and let people through and ship the glass by playing last but not he one that you knew and anger takes place of was removed

Mt.Pleasant isn't anymore

the police will not be excused the police will not bud in

the police will not be excused the police will not bud in

All too much is lost in never enough to save

And anger takes place of what's ignored
