

Ever Dark, From The Ashes (She Rises)

born from fire angel of darkness arises creation of desire heart of blackness sears opposes holy father daughter of satan temptress of thee

come and take me

such beauty indeed
my evil queen
she shall arise
like a dark phoenix returns from the ashes may you grace this night none can stop your spell you're beyond death's reach a vision of glory and seduction from the ashes she rises to the earth not even death can claim her soul beware for she is evil itself

I ride the wings of death I laugh at god's face I escape from the grave to rule over you all
