

EverGreen, Evergreen - Bully Rag

Dreaming of beauty and then for bigger things, and im not sure whats the point to all your babbling. i have a right inside to decide on my own, with no help or promise...to do some thinking for yourself and if we hate each other for something someone else said, well then do some thinking for yourself, please let me make my own future with all the pitfalls, should i atleast.
