

EverGreen, Making Fun Of Your First Love

These things may come easier for you my friend but for me its harder your fingers on it. your shadow melts the sun and fades away. you fixed it. you pleased it and a cold lump fills my throat and one tear fills my eye and im thinking to myself. if i do will it be ok, it never will who will i fool and my friends say to me why are you sad. i like you better when youre stoned.
