

Evergreen Terrace, Watch You Fall

You left me here and its a shame i know... ill never breathe again i tried so hard and did so many times but u broke you broke it yourself i'll lie face down for you no more...no way after all i may cause i will take my grief and wait for you ill wait to watch you fall so build your world on empty lies i swore one day youd pay the price you denied the weakness that you beared you will go down and i wont care i wont care
i dont care
im sure one day youll pay the price deny the weakness that you beare you will go down but i dont care
i dont care
