

Everlife, Evidence

Ooo...yea,

Can we hang out for a while,
So I can talk your ear off..
Just hear me out.
This might sound too wierd,
I think I have the answer to the questions that we talked about.

Were we [let out on a limb]?
Lay our cards down on the table,
and discovered, that we're able.

:Chours:
I am free,
To believe,
What I can not perceive with my eyes.
I can feel with my heart.
I dont need to believe with my hands.
Cuz faith is so much more than coensidence...
It's my evidence.

When I close my eyes,
Im taken to the place where my soul is satisfied.
I would look back on the day,
The only fears of living up and walked away.
Well I came out to play.
No more second guessing.
No more guessing...

:Chours:
I am free,
To believe,
What I can not perceive with my eyes.
I can feel with my heart.
I dont need to believe with my hands.
Cuz faith is so much more than coensidence...
It's my...

Evidence of what you can not see...
But what you hoped for
The world that holds your [fate]?
Is not visible...
Invisible.

:Chours:
Are you free...To Believe?
What you can not perceive with your eyes.
Can you feel with your heart?
You dont need to believe with your hands.
Cuz faith is so much more than coensidence...
Its the evidence.
