

Everyday Sunday, Wake Up! Wake Up!

Feels like I'm going through the motions in the dark in a world that leaves me with an uninspired heart

All I know, is I'm so tired living life a barely feel give me hope, give me fire gimme something real

'Cause I don't wanna keep sleep-walking through endless days, I've had enough of going nowhere, God I want to wake up! wake up!
wake up!

It's now or never come and pull me from this dream where everything is colorless and nothing is what it seems

I believe, only you can make me come alive help me be so consumed, open up my eyes

'Cause I don't wanna keep sleep-walking through endless days, I've had enough of
going nowhere, God I want to wake up! wake up!
wake up!

Half Asleep
I'm so bored
counting sheep

'Cause I don't wanna keep sleep-walking through endless days, I've had enough of
going nowhere, God I want to wake up! wake up!
wake up!

wake up! wake up!
wake up!

Half asleep
I'm so bored
counting sheep
wake up!

half asleep
I'm so bored
counting sheep
