

Evil Dead, Parricide

Arguments that start from sibling rivalry,
Battered and bruised; his parents beat him nightly,
Born with defects deformed and unsightly,
Treated like shit always taken lightly.
It's late at night the family is sleeping,
His brother's the first, wakes up without thinking,
A knife across his throat He's factaly bleeding,
Ripped into shreds, brain fluid's seeping.

Mom and Dad died in bed their bodies are burning,
Sister's guts were ripped out; Her dog used as stuffing,
With all this fresh meat lying around The PARRICIDE starst thinking;
"It's such a shame to let it rot, I might as well start eating."
