

Ewelina Flinta, Tell My Why

You have no power
you have no!

because of all the tears i am leave now
it's the time for all my dreams

kept alive
but you keep haunting me mess up with my life

I hear voices are telling me again you are the only one to blame what my mind is really going through tell me why you can finally give me out of your head let me go my own way

simply without you
tell me why do I need you must be lesson to learn
every time I am getting closer to the truth!

so maybe only once you tell me how it feels stealing all my life constantly in fear

I'm standing on my feet and learning how to breathe

I hear voices are telling me again you are the on to be shamed

(You have no power)

all the things you said
I dance whit hope and regret
yeas I am coming closer to the truth! yeas I am coming
I am getting closer to the truth!
I am getting closer to the truth!

(You have no power)
every time I am getting closer to the truth!
(You have no power)

(You have no power)
every time I am getting closer to the truth!
(You have no power)
every time I am getting closer to the truth!
(You have no power)
every time I am getting closer to the truth!
(You have no power)
over me!
