

Exact, I am just a girl

Ref.:

So I will already be forever.
And even you won't change it.
Nobody will change it.
You will be doing anything,
I so I will stay.
I am just a girl
And you should understand it.
Always so I was
and always so I will be.
Even if you didn't notice it.
I am just a girl
Starting from today my life is changed
Cause I don't already care about you.
I am able alone to deal with.
I am somebody and you are a nobody.
This way it has always been
and this way he will always be

1.:

You can say what you want.
You can think what you want.
For me it no longer is important,
Cause you stopped counting for me.
And although you are standing still
My life is passing farther
This time the time passes twice more quickly.
Cause without you for me now more lightly.

2.:

I don't care already about your love.
It already a long time ago lost the meaning.
I know that you won't understand it but I wasn't able this way to live.
Your love wasn't true.
Your smile was nothing,
and "I love you" was only word.
Life is difficult.

3.:

I don't like them oneself your trinkets.
And impression you are doing which in the club.
When you are smiling to every hotties.
You aren't probably able to be constant in your feelings.
You so you are and you will always be.
So I am different to myself we don't fit.
The life is able to be cruel.

4.:

I also have my faults.
I know, nobody is perfect.
Living would be too fine.
But it is possible in the dream.
When I will close my eyes.
And I can see you there, but differently.
I can't see your faults.
But I know, really you're just a Guy
